LEAGUE DIRECTORS MESSAGE

PLAY-OFF's BEGIN TUESDAY, JANUARY 15th. See suggested playoff bracket below which features a unified league top-to bottom format. All teams eligible to play. 14 points advances until final round, which is a double match (home and home). First team to 28 in final round wins league championship.

Players need to have appeared in a minimum of 5 weekly matches to be eligible for playoffs. Only one bye or forfeit can count towards the 5.

POSTPONEMENT ISSUES. The 2 postponed games were not made up and declared as 0-0 scores on the sheet as the league generally discourages forfeits in the last week of the season (which can unfairly affect the standings). Some players inquired about all star points, and as is league policy has been, we've given an average of all-star points to players in the 0-0 games. This represents the truest value for player points and has least artificial affect on the stats.

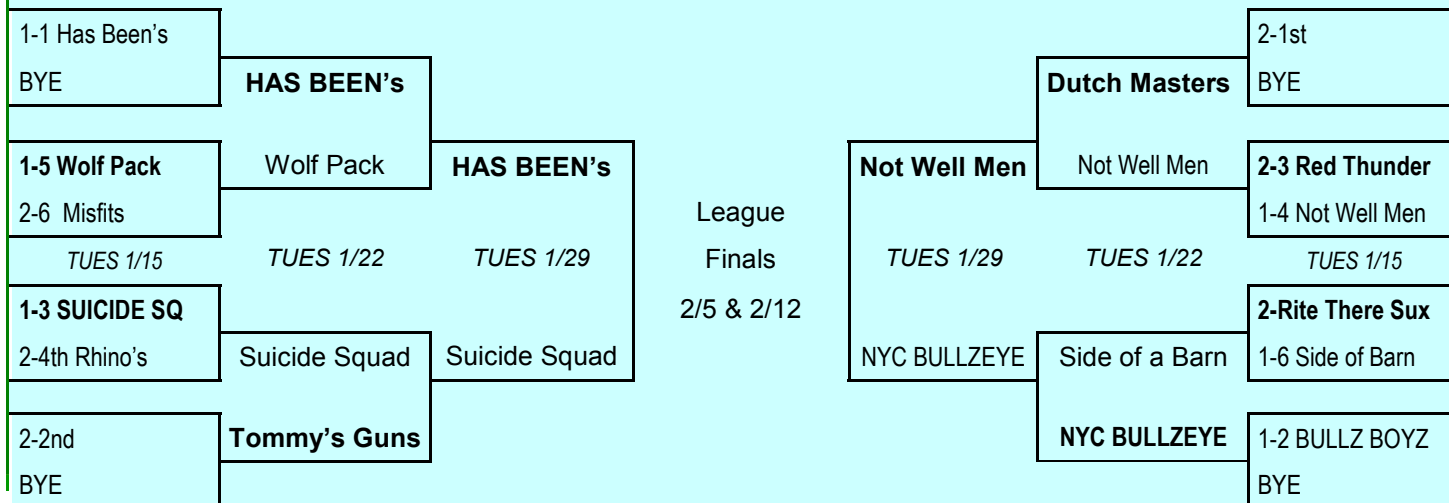

SUGGESTED PLAYOFF BRACKET QUESTIONS? Only one inquiry, questioning why we have 5 playing 6 in the bracket. This playoff scheme lets the two bottom seeds (from each bracket) face each other with the winner going against one of the two top seed's in the league bracket. This leaves all "middle" seeded teams with an opportunity to play through the semi's, insuring a more robust and balanced playoff.

Remember, call in the scores after playoff games! (No need for individual stats)

Good Darts, and God Bless America,
 Lou and Billy
